Description

- There is a reason why the USS Arizona Memorial is the number one visited destination in Hawaii. Millions of visitors from all over the world come to this majestic setting to see for themselves where World War II began for the United States on December 7th, 1941.
- Tour Content:
 - Chief's Tour 30 minutes audio/50 mins of archives, photos and research.
 - Commander's Tours 60 minutes audio/2 hrs. of archives, photos and research.
 - Captain's Tour 70 minutes audio/4.5 hrs. of archives, photos and research.
 - Admiral VIP Tour Captain's Tour plus all 4 Virtual Reality Experiences.
- Since there are no escort tours allowed at the Pearl Harbor National Memorial, we encourage visitors to take the Official National Park Service's USS Arizona Multimedia tours. These incredible high quality multimedia tours are customized to meet the visitors needs based on their available time and priced accordingly to provide savings for those with limited tour time at the memorial park. The tours are provided on smartphones with ear buds and use a maps to guide visitors through the tour so they can easily follow along.
- Let Jamie Lee Curtis, whose father was a decorated WWII combat veteran guide you through the Visitor Center's two world-class museums, with narration aboard the Memorial and throughout the Pearl Harbor Visitor Center. Hear and view firsthand testimonials and stories from actual USS Arizona and Pearl Harbor Survivors as they retell their stories and retrace the events of Dec 7, 1941.
- Only these custom narrated multimedia tours allow visitors exclusive access, via smartphone, to the National Park Service World War II archives and videos on the attack at Pearl Harbor.
